Dear Madam or Sir,

I am a researcher at the Dutch NGO Just Finance International. Recently I conducted a field visit in Uganda to meet with some EACOP affected people. In many communities there seems to be dissatisfaction with the compensation offered for land and housing. Some people fear they will have nowhere to go when the construction work begins and that the compensation wont buy them equivalent land and houses in other places.

What will EACOP do to make sure that all the people affected by the construction work will have an adequate livelihood after the project is completed?

Best Regards

Nils Resare
